Welcome to Wellspring!

In summer, our normally rigid schedules relax and turn into trips to the lake, kids out of school, BBQs, and summer vacation. And the change of pace gives us a great opportunity to re-evaluate things in life. Do I need a redo? A jump-start to get through another day with the kids? Or my marriage? Or my job?

Enter RE. Two small letters with a big job. Sometimes, it means, "again." Think: refill, recharge. Sometimes RE means to push away or let go. Think: restrain or restrict. RE has work cut out for us.

God is the author of incredible stories of change and is ready to do the same in our lives! Souls refreshed. Relationships restored. Hearts reborn. It's good to be with you in worship as we open the door to transformation in our series, The Power of RE.

If you are new, please feel free to look around, ask questions, be yourself, and let us know if there is anything we can do to make your experience most memorable. Be sure to meet some of the great people here at Wellspring, and we look forward to living well alongside you.

Celebrate Rev. Kris Melvin

Kris has been appointed by our Bishop to serve as the senior minister of Van Alstyne United Methodist Church. We will celebrate Kris on June 18, his last Sunday with us, following the 10:05am and 11:10am worship services in Dyer Hall. The worship service will be shortened to provide time at the end for you to give Kris hugs, high-fives, and handshakes of appreciation and love.

Please consider bringing a "love offering" of a gift card or cash to give to Kris and his family as they head to their new place of ministry. Let's celebrate Kris!
