Welcome to Wellspring!

In summer, our normally rigid schedules relax and turn into trips to the lake, kids out of school, BBQs, and summer vacation. And the change of pace gives us a great opportunity to re-evaluate things in life. Do I need a redo? A jump-start to get through another day with the kids? Or my marriage? Or my job?

Enter RE. Two small letters with a big job. Sometimes, it means, "again." Think: refill, recharge. Sometimes RE means to push away or let go. Think: restrain or restrict. RE has work cut out for us.

God is the author of incredible stories of change and is ready to do the same in our lives! Souls refreshed. Relationships restored. Hearts reborn. It's good to be with you in worship as we open the door to transformation in our series, The Power of RE.

If you are new, please feel free to look around, ask questions, be yourself, and let us know if there is anything we can do to make your experience most memorable. Be sure to meet some of the great people here at Wellspring, and we look forward to living well alongside you.

Today in the 10:05 service, we celebrate the baptism of

son of Matthew and Sagan McCulloch
