The American Philosopher William James wrote, "The great use of life is to spend it for something that will outlast it."

One's "legacy" is a fascinating concept because it speaks to the future and something beyond us, yet it is primarily determined by our past. Our future legacy will be shaped by the decisions we make today. So, what will your legacy be? Wellspring's Legacy series will focus on this question. Inspired by Scripture, we will look at the importance of leaving a positive spiritual legacy.

We're so glad you're here! We are a church where you can come as you are – you don't have to have your whole life put together to be a part of our community. If you are new, please feel free to ask questions, be yourself, get connected, and let us know if there is anything we can do to make your experience most memorable.

Today in worship, we celebrate the baptism of Maxwell Hayes Maness.

His parents are William and Alexis Maness.

Sermon: Faith Legacy

Scripture: Acts 2:1-21

Sermon Notes

Take time this week to dig deeper into the message with these questions:

1. Imagine having the perfect birthday party. Where would it be, what would you do, who would be there, what gifts would you hope to receive?
2. Pentecost, which means “fiftieth,” occurs 50 days after Easter and celebrates the Holy Spirit descending upon and empowering hundreds if not thousands of people to share the Good News of Jesus. It is considered the moment when the Christian church truly began. It is the church’s birthday!
3. Read the story of Pentecost in Acts 2:1-21.
4. Those at the “party” received the gift of the Holy Spirit. Since then, anyone who accepts Jesus as Lord and Savior receives the gift of Holy Spirit. If you are a Christian what gifts have you received from God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit?
5. In what ways is God calling you to share your gifts and blessings with others?
6. Who do you know that needs to be invited to God’s party...a loving relationship with Jesus?
7. Spend time in prayer giving thanks for God’s love and the blessings you have received, and for opportunities to share the love of Christ with others.

“Like” our Facebook page and be sure to check-in online! For every new “like” and “check-in” we receive, we will provide three meals to hungry kids!

That’s right! Your simple check-in helps spread the word about Wellspring and feeds kids. This is a simple click of the button that can have a big impact. Scan the QR code with your smart phone camera to be taken to our Facebook page.
